“SPICA”

mar  infinito[®]

The Hanse 540e sailboat, built in 2010, has a self-tacking jib, a hallmark of the shipyard. The maneuver hidden under a beautiful flat deck lined in Teak, which allows the helmsman to take care of the entire sailing maneuver. The large bathing platform descends opening a huge hatch. In it you can stow all kinds of equipment, including the dinghy, paddle surf, kayak, diving equipment, etc., making stowage very simple from the sea.

SPICA's salon is large and has an L-shaped kitchen, very comfortable and safe to use, even while sailing.

Spica is approved for 12 to sail, and 10 for overnight stays, and has a lot of habitable and stowage volume for that number of crew members. The distribution in this version is for 8 guests in 4 cabins with double beds, 1 can sleep on the dinette sofa, and finally the skipper, who has his own complete cabin, with a separate entrance through the foredeck.

Our Hanse 540e has full en-suite toilets in each cabin. Each one has its own sink, toilet and shower. The skipper's cabin also offers him the independence of a toilet and sink.
